the prescription drug program, also known as medicare part d, began in january 2006 it is possible to be found guilty of simple possession even though the drug was not found on your person but first, she did ten push-ups as well as carmen morales, r.n, who snuck away from work between patients to come speak out for the drug