I fear we built our bed and will die in it no matter how inappropriate it is for changing global economic and environmental conditions.

There is a definite bias against spending and studies on men's health in some sections of the medical profession.

And the other poems and fictions I was reading there is certainly a property in Thackeray that somehow...