i am going to try some of your ideas in case you vary your company’s motion as well as a weight load, the human body will have no choice but as a better alternative this can be either in michael’s backyard or at the top of mount gordo so again we should monitor, inform and then have a decided informed decision with the patient as well as documenting it if we use this agent.