the primary argument for mail-order pharmacies is that they use their larger size to negotiate lower prices for drugs than individual pharmacies can this is our number one priority to get them out of pain or out of their distress or discomfort in very simple terms the hypothalamus produces gnrh (gonadotrophin-releasing hormone) which signals to the pituitary to produce lh (luteinising hormones and fsh (follicle stimulating hormone)